Subject:

Unclaimed Property Report for Wyoming

Background/Alternatives:

Individual states have offices that are responsible for collecting unclaimed property that meet certain criteria from financial institutions, companies and governmental entities. The address of the owner of the unclaimed property determines which state will be receiving the unclaimed property. For the 2022 fiscal year, there were 5 owners in Wyoming that did not claim property. These properties will be remitted to The Wyoming State Treasurer’s Office. The Unclaimed Property Divisions then make a diligent effort to return the funds to the rightful owner, and will hold the funds until the owner or heir makes claim to the funds.

The following list represents our annual compliance with the Unclaimed Property state requirements. The payment to the Unclaimed Property Division represents utility deposits that have not been claimed by terminated customers who have left the area with no forwarding addresses, payments for unclaimed payroll checks, or miscellaneous payments. These funds must be submitted to the Wyoming State Treasurer’s Office under the Unclaimed Property Act by November 1st of each year.
